Report of Divorce to Mrs. Barrymore

Decree Granted in Poughkeepsie to the Wife of Lionel.

The report that an interlocutory decree of divorce had been granted to Mrs. Doris Rankin Barrymore against Lionel Barrymore, stage and screen star and member of America's most famous theatrical family, was confirmed yesterday by the attorneys in the case. They said that the decree, which gives Mrs. Barrymore custody of their only child pending the three months before the decree becomes final, was signed in Poughkeepsie last Saturday by Su-in Poughkeepsie last Saturday by Supreme Court Justice Morschauser.

During the winter, while reports of an estrangement and separation between Lionel, who has lately been acting in the films, and his wife have been rife. Ethel, with whom Mrs. Barrymore had been playing in "Rose Bernd," has been making very determined efforts to bring about a reconciliation. John Barrymore, Lionel's younger brother, lent his influence. Mrs. Barrymore stayed with Ethel at her home in Mamaroneck this summer. She also went abroad on the last trip of John an dhis wifef, known in a literary way as "Michael Strange," to Europe. Their efforts at bringing harmony, however, failed and Lionel and his wife lived apart.

Previous to this break, which brought the utmost surprise to their friends, they had been regarded as the most devoted couple on the stage. Lionel, who married Doris Rankin, daughter of the late McKee Rankin and Kitty Blanchard, a noted actress in the

The name of the corespondent was not made known. J. Gordon Flennery, a Foughkeepsie lawyer who acted as referee, found for Mrs. Barrymore in two weeks. Phoenix Ingraham of 120 Broadway represented Mrs. Barrymore and John J. Curtin of 233 Broadway appeared for the actor.

Press correspondents at Lausanne have called attention to the leading part played in the deliberations by our observers. What does this mean, our editors have been wondering, as they read the dispatches from the Swiss city. Are we really intervening? "Isn't Mr. Child wading into the Lausanne Conference rather more deeply than is permitted to a mere observer?" queries the Dallas News (Dem.). The United States, remarks the Utica Press (Ind.), "would appear to be in a position of playing an important if not a decisive role." Others wonder what will
